PRESIDENT'S 1962 MESSAGE

When the curtain rises today on the 1962 season, I trust that we will be standing on the threshold of a most enjoyable season. May it be our good fortune to witness many thrilling and exciting games with a good share of unexpected results.

I take this opportunity to wish all clubs the best of luck and to all supporters a full season of enjoyable barracking. I look forward with confidence to a most successful year.

Mr. P. GARRETT, President.

LEAGUE IN STRONG POSITION

A credit balance of £364 placed the league in a strong financial position at the end of the 1961 season, as revealed at the annual general meeting earlier this year.

However, payments authorised by a full attendance of delegates from all 10 clubs reduced the overall balance to £220.

These were honorariums totalling £100, injured players payment to Armadale Club covering the final round and £19, cost of a wind-up social. A previous payment of £25 had been made to the Canning Club on behalf of another injured player.

Delegates, as a league, agreed that it was necessary to retain a substantial credit balance for this year rather than distribute equal amounts to the clubs.

The league voted to retain its own central umpires' panel, although several delegates favoured umpires from the Perth league panel.

LEAGUE APPOINTS SIX NEW UMPIRES

The South Suburban-Murray National Football League umpires' board has appointed six new umpires to the panel for the 1962 season. Thirty applications were received by the board, which deliberated for almost three hours recently before making the final appointment of 12 umpires.

Among the new appointments are men who have played and umpired Australian Rules Football from Carnarvon to Pember and Geelong (Victoria).

Appointed: D. Bowker, G. Peters, J. Candler, A. V. Sampson, R. Cribb, R. Pages-Oliver, E. E. Martin, S. Hughes, Ted Philps, A. Briant, W. Sidebottom and D. Wallis.

Pages-Oliver is a former captain-coach of Pinjarra.

All umpires will be required to officiate at either league or seconds games, as allocated by the league.

ONIONS LEADS DEMONS

Former East Fremantle player, Wilson Onions, will again coach Armadale this season. Last season he brought the red and blacks up from almost the bottom of the list to play in the grand final. This was no mean achievement.

Club officials and supporters are confident that, under Onions' guidance, Armadale can achieve even greater heights this year.

A recent meeting of the club elected the following officials: Patron, J. Murray; president, W. McCormick; secretary, Mills; treasurer, A. Feast; social secretary, P. Redfern; coach, W. Onions; head trainer, E. Mills; property man, K. Baker; thirds coach, F. Green, jnr.

Committee of management: Messrs. K. Bradshaw, W. Clarke, D. Mills, E. Mills, J. Pratt, E. Henderson.

Auditor is C. Marsh.

Secretary Mills has resigned and will leave shortly for the North-West. At present the club is looking for a successor.

MADDINGTON EXPECTS GOOD YEAR

With former South Fremantle and State wingman, Pat Daly, as coach and most of last year's young team available, Maddington look forward to a good year.

The players have been training since mid-January and are very fit.

Two intra and two interclub games have been played, with a loss to Kelmscott and a victory over Cannington the result.

Main office bearers are Messrs. S. Jarvis (president), C. Smcock (vice-president), L. Thorn (secretary), P. Daly (coach), D. Jennings (assistant coach).

PREMIERS AGAIN LOOK STRONG

South Suburban-Murray National Football League premiers in 1961, Canning again look strong for the opening of the 1962 season against Mandurah today.

Their heaviest loss has been centre half forward, Chris' Baxter, who is in the Eastern States on a working holiday, and they will also be without ruckman, Des Fogarty.

They have been having poor attendances at training sessions, but the team should still be fit enough to outclass a considerably weakened Mandurah team.

Mandurah, who were beaten badly by Canning in the second semi-final last September, will be without Don King, Ray Bradshaw, Kevin Fogarty, Les Rundell, Bill Hough and Bruce Briggs.

The sea-siders have been toughened by solid coaching from former Subiaco player, Alan White, but should lack the all-round strength of Canning.

Maddington have greatly improved under the coaching of former South Fremantle and State player, Pat Daly, and should beat Armadale in what could be the closest of the opening games today.

Maddington have had enthusiastic training sessions for several weeks and recently beat Cannington by four goals in a preliminary scratch match. They are extremely fit and their all-round strength should prove too much for 1961 runners-up, Armadale.

Hills and Kelmscott, who were very evenly matched last year, should turn on a good match at Dwellingup, but the South Suburban team could carry too many big guns for the weakened Dwellingup team.

Hills and the league suffered a big loss when ruckman, Phil Woolhead, decided to play in Bunbury this season. Last year, Woolhead won the Pinjarra is another weakened Murray team and will be able to do little to prevent defeat to the hands of Gosnells. Gosnells have been training hard for about two months and will go on to the field in the peak of physical condition.

Waroona and Kenwick, who vied for the wooden spoon in the competition last year, could surprise many of the more-favoured teams this year. Kenwick are considerably stronger and should beat Waroona.

Predicted winners: Canning, Maddington, Kelmscott, Gosnells and Kenwick.

COSTLY SCRATCH MATCH INJURY

Mandurah had a costly injury in a scratch match against Pinjarra recently, when their star league ruckman, Bill Hough, fell and broke his wrist. Hough is likely to be out of the Mandurah team for at least six weeks.

For the opening game against last year's premiers Cannington, Mandurah will be without seven players who regularly took the field with the league side in the 1961 season.

Rover and forward pocket, Don King, centre half back, Ray Bradshaw, and full forward, Kevin Fogarty, will not be available this season and the absence of ruckman Hough will leave four gaping holes in the Mandurah team.

Bruce Briggs, Ted McMahon and Les Rundell are three other regular 1961 players who will not be available this season.

The team includes several new recruits, but the red and whites will go on to the field today with a considerably weaker combination than they had last year.

PLAYERS TOUR EASTERN STATES

Canning star centre half forward, Chris Baxter, and ruckman, Des Fogarty, are at present on a working holiday in the Eastern States and will not be available for the league football team this season. The team will lack the bite they had in attack last year. Chris Baxter won the fairest and best award for the club last year and was a great force in the premiers' forward line.

D. Carney, V. Dann, G. Hodgson, G. Morrissey and K. Howell are other players who are not likely to take the field for the black and golds this year.

Cliff Noble, vice-captain of the league side, has been appointed coach of the Canning seconds. He replaces Trevor Parker, who coached the "B"-graders for seven years, including a premiership in the first year of the South Suburban-Murray National Football League.

Wyong Oval will not be fully completed for the opening against Mandurah today, but should be ready for the next home game on May 13.

LEAGUE MADE GOOD PROGRESS

"In our first year as a constituted league, we made good progress," said Mr. P. Garrett, our president, in reporting to the annual general meeting on February 16 last.

"We had our teething troubles, but I believe that we can feel pleased with what we have achieved for football in our districts," he said.

Mr. Garrett spoke appreciatively of the work done by the secretary-treasurer, Mr. R. Blackburn, who had carried out an immense amount of work during the season, despite his hospitalisation at one period.

The league, too, had been fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. J. Woodward as acting secretary-treasurer during the time that Mr. Blackburn was in hospital.

Mr. Garrett spoke of the good work done by the protests and disputes board, the umpires' board and the important step taken to produce a football budget as the league's official mouth-piece.

He considered, however, that the league should consider another method for the presentation of trophies to the premierships teams and the successful players.

The president congratulated the Canning Club in winning both league and seconds premierships and expressed the hope that the 1962 season would mean success for other clubs and that the league would go from strength to strength.

EDITORIAL NOTE

This is the first publication of the Football Gazette, official organ of the South Suburban-Murray National Football League, for the 1962 season.

Its continued success relies in no small measure on the support of its advertisers, co-operation of the clubs and their official news representatives, as well as generous public support.

With all pulling together, there will be no chance of failure . . . but there is one important request . . .

THE HAWKS' REPORT

A hearty welcome to the 1962 season to players, members and supporters and John Colgan as the club's new coach.

Rejoining the club after several years in Bridgetown is Neil O'Connell. Unfortunately, Neil sustained an injury in an early scratch match, but we hope that he will soon be fit and playing the brand of football of which we all know he is capable.

Best wishes go to those players who are trying their luck in city league ranks this season. Notwithstanding, the door of the club rooms is always open to them should they wish to return.

Among the players are Brian Woodward, Lyton Hambleton at Subiaco and Joe Kalazich at East Fremantle.

Former Gosnells player, Barry Rayment, who is at present teaching in New Guinea, has been on the sick list; all wish him a speedy recovery. Barry also starred for Claremont and South Bunbury.

Club entertainment has been maintained over the summer months with great success. Many guests were entertained by the club president, Tim Passmore and his wife at two barbecues, and an old players' reunion was arranged. Unfortunately, this was not very well attended.

Old players and members are reminded that the club would welcome them back to the fold once more.

The ladies' committee and friends were the guests of Mrs. Passmore at a tennis afternoon. The younger girls found that youth is not needed to win a tennis match. Among those present were Mesdames Garrett, Bowden, Colgan, Rayment and D. Ibbs.

Enthusiasm is running high in the club and many players have been training strongly since early in the year. New coach, John Colgan, former South Fremantle and State star, demands a high degree of fitness. It is hoped that this enthusiasm is maintained throughout the season.

Club juniors have not been slacking and are again being coached by capable John Marsh.

Frank Weale, a club stalwart for many years, has finally hung up his boots. However, Frank is not leaving, he is doing a fine job as trainer. There are not many players who remain after their playing days to lend a hand. Thanks, Frank.

Members are advised that a good round of functions has been planned for the season, arrangements for which will be published in this Gazette. Further information can be obtained from social secretary, Barrie Matison.

LEAGUE GAME OFF

A move to arrange an inter-league fixture between our own district and the Lower South-West has had to be abandoned.

Although a distinct possibility at first, a letter from the L.S.W. intimated that there was no chance of a clash between representative teams this season, as their match programme had been filled.

The South-West League also sought a match later this season, but this was held over, possibly to next year, because of the earlier prospects of a game against the L.S.W.

June 3 is still a vacant date, but a decision was expected at the league meeting last Friday night.

WAROONA GATHERS STRENGTH

With some former players returning, Waroona is gradually gathering strength and club members are hopeful of greater things during the 1962 season.

At the beginning of last season, Waroona was without the services of 14 good players. This loss was naturally reflected in the club's league performances. However, the black and whites are now "back on deck" and determined to build a stronger

Waroona.

Every support is being given Coach Bob McRae, with the result that club and the team are expected "to go places" and certainly get nearer the final four this season.

UMPIRE SAMPSON VOLUNTEERS

Leading central umpire, Bert Sampson, well-known to city, country league and association football, has offered his services as adviser to the S.S.M.N.F.L. Umpires' Panel.

With 11 other applicants, Sampson was chosen as a member of the 1962 panel earlier this year.

Before Easter, the panel met at the home of league secretary, Reg Blackburn and discussed various aspects of the new season which, so far as this league is concerned, opens today. Mr. Steve Jervis, a member of the umpires' board, was also present.

Umpire Sampson is keen on physical training to keep field officials fit and has offered to organise the panel for weekly training runs.

CANNING MOVE TO NEW GROUND

South Suburban-Murray National Football League premiers in 1961, Canning will open the 1962 football season on their new ground at Wyong. The above line-map gives directions to the new ground, which will be used for the first time tomorrow in the opening game of the season between Canning and Mandurah.

When Canning were given use of the ground by the Cannington Shire Council some months ago, they set about preparing Wyong for the 1962 season and the ground is now well suited for football with modern club rooms.
